Drive EV Battery & High Voltage System Warranty

What is covered?

The warranty covers the battery pack and all high voltage system parts for the vehicle's useful life, up to 100,000 miles or 10 years, whichever comes first. The warranty is limited to the battery pack and high voltage system parts. It does not cover the rest of the vehicle or any other components. The warranty is void if the vehicle is used for commercial purposes or is involved in a collision that causes damage to the battery pack or high voltage system.

The warranty is available on all new Nissan Leaf vehicles with the 62 kWh battery pack. The warranty is not available on used vehicles or vehicles with a damaged battery pack or high voltage system.
